

Community Educator- Youth Partnership for Change YouthLaunch

YouthLaunch, a nonprofit organization that provides empowering service opportunities to young people, is seeking a dynamic individual to serve as a Community Educator with the Youth Partnership for Change program (YPC).

YPC is an alcohol prevention education program that empowers young people to raise awareness in Austin area community about the number one drug of choice for young people in Texas—alcohol. Young people will serve as community educators, sharing their knowledge through exciting community presentations and outreach activities to help peers, parents, and community members understand the real dangers and consequences of underage alcohol use.

We are currently looking for young people to serve as Community Educators.

Who We're Looking For

You might make a great YPC Community Educator if you are...

- 16 – 21 years of age
- Concerned about underage drinking and want to take action
- Interested in making a difference in Travis county, by sharing why you are concerned about underage alcohol use
- A U.S. citizen or possess a social security card
- Have transportation or have access to transportation
- Model appropriate behavior in regards to alcohol use
- Can commit team meetings for a few hours a couple times a month

What You Get

As a Community Educator you will ...

- Feel good about enhancing your community by sharing your story with others
- Earn a stipend in exchange for your service
- Gain professional skills
- Receive training in underage alcohol issues, public speaking, job skills, and team building.
- Enjoy the support of a close-knit group of young people making a difference in the Austin community
- Participate in service that will strengthen your resume
